

Received 3rd December 2015, Case Closed, No Action.

This was the first and only correspondence or contact from social services since freedom of information, social worker gone letter received 9th October. Jacque Purdy is the social worker briefed about difficulties experienced and asked to ensure better communication. Two months to send one letter reflects how seriously that was taken.

Dear Mr and Mrs McGeown,

Thank you for speaking with me regarding your children, and for your patience with this assessment. I am writing to advise you that the assessment has now concluded and as such your family's case is now closed. This information will be shared with the necessary agencies.

If you require any further information on this matter please contact me on the direct number above.

Yours sincerely,

Jacque Purdy
